

John Keats
a young English Poet (whose mortal remains this kindred earth received) died in Rome on the 24th February 1821 in his twenty fifth year.

In his last moments he requested the following words to mark his grave

"there lies one whose name was writ in Water"
Time

Having reversed the sentence his only sister
now inscribes his name
in Marble

1864

John Keats died in his twenty fourth year on the
— of February 1821.
"The broken lily lies—the storm is overpast"

Whose master's hand is cold, whose silver lyre unstrung.

Sir

I have received yours of the 23th and am sorry to be unable to answer most of your questions, which I hope are not very essential to the recovery of the money. Will you have the kindness to inform me if the £200 you mention has been gaining interest, or has remained dead for so many years

I remain

Yours truly
Francisco de Lemos
